

Company

Czech & Speake offers a unique “luxurious bathing” concept, developed and refined by its founder Frank Sawkins, combining the most luxurious hardware with the finest fragrances. With a proud heritage and classic, understated style that has granted Czech & Speake a national and international following, this English brand is now sold worldwide and is still a London based family business, driven by its original founder.

Role

Czech & Speake are looking for a part-time showroom assistant for their Belgravia Showroom on Pimlico Road. Ideally candidates will have a design background, though a passion for Interiors is essential. An opportunity for a driven candidate with a positive demeanour to join a well-respected British Brand with a prospect to adapt the role for the right individual. Must be well presented with excellent communication skills.

Responsibilities include (but not limited to):

- Assisting showroom client walk ins; providing clients with the Czech & Speake experience
- Providing clients with excellent product knowledge on both the three bathroom collections and fragrances
- Presenting clients with the Czech and Speake products; both in the showroom and attending visits
- Responding to enquiries via email and telephone
- Delivering excellent customer service
- Assisting Showroom Manager with window displays, stock management
- Process order and communicate with head office effectively
- Assisting with Showroom Social Media
- Assisting with Showroom Events

Preferred Character:

- Excellent written and oral skills
- Competent IT skills
- Professional and friendly demeanour with clients
- Organised and conscientious
- Able to use own initiative and work proactively within the team
- Desire to learn and develop, both the company and own personal growth

Showroom hours are typically 10-6pm but hours are more flexible for showroom assistants.

Application:

Please apply with a CV and cover letter to pimlico.road@czechandspeake.com

Salary Negotiable

Part Time and some weekends