UP AND COMING EVENTS

Countdown to Focus/18

Focus/18 is approaching fast and showrooms are busy preparing for autumn's unmissable interiors event. From Sunday 16 to Friday 21 September, design enthusiasts comes together at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour to share their stories, ideas and creative vision. The dynamic programme offers more than 100 experiential sessions that bring design ideas to life. If you are a colour fan, there is plenty of it this season.

Celebrate its positive power with a specially commissioned installation by international artist Moritz Waldemeyer. In the showrooms, expect first glimpses of new season collections and designer collaborations unseen anywhere else. Specially commissioned places to eat and drink complement the event programme and make Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour a lively design destination. On the main stage, Conversations in Design excels with an international line-up of high calibre speakers while Colour Workshops expand on the show's upbeat, colourful mood. Pre-register today for your chance to win a great prize. Click here

Evolution of Tradition: A Celebration of Excellence, Craftsmanship & Creativity in Furniture Making

A new curated exhibition of contemporary bespoke furniture, designed by some of the UK's most distinguished craftspeople, will launch this autumn at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour from 2 until 5 October 2018. 'Evolution of Tradition' represents an exciting collaboration with The Furniture Makers' Company, a City of London livery corporation, and will showcase a range of work of astonishing breadth, scope and artistic merit. Attracting top designers, architects, international collectors and style-seekers, the exhibition will be an opportunity for visitors to gain a greater understanding of how one-of-a-kind designs are conceived and made, as well as acquire unique pieces. In an increasingly fast-paced world, experience the beauty and creativity of time-honoured skills from masters of their craft. Register online here

Asia Week at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour

The continent of Asia has long caught the imagination of the West. Asia Week at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour, in association with Asian Art in London, is a multi-dimensional exhibition that will run from 5 until 9 November 2018. Featuring seven galleries showcasing the work of artists from China, Korea, Japan, The Philippines and Nepal, the event will explore the enduring appeal of the Asian aesthetic and why it resonates today. Artistic interpretations of the history, philosophy and culture of individual countries will offer a unique perspective to the work on show. Generating a deeper understanding of design from both cultures, a specially curated programme of events, workshops, masterclasses and discovery tours will explore the crossover between East and West.
