

CLASSICAL COLLECTION

A timeless collection of Collier Webb's most cherished classical table lamps, befitting of the most opulent interiors.

Adorned with ornate motifs, grand columns and rich patinas, this collection of Neoclassical and Gothic Revival solid brass table lamps offer a timeless aesthetic.

Inspired by late 18th and 19th century originals, most pieces in this collection have been made using the traditional lost-wax method of casting. This technique captures the highly detailed features of this period perfectly. From beautiful acanthus leaves seen in the Arum and Folly lamps to the dramatic volutes of the Ruined Column.

The lamps are seen here with gathered shades in "Hedera", a cotton / linen weave by George Spencer Designs.

- Customisation: Each lamp can be ordered in any of our metal finishes

- Note: Shades sold separately. Hedera fabric pricing available via www.georgespencer.com
