HANDCRAFTED IN ENGLAND

PRESS RELEASE

23rd March 2021

British lighting brand, Collier Webb introduce “Icons Collection”

Incorporating the very best of Collier Webb’s lighting, the Icons Collection represents the brand’s unique design, heritage and craftsmanship.

New photography and videography, shot within Collier Webb’s home county of Sussex, feature a combination of stark concrete walls and sumptuous wall hangings, accentuating the brand’s ethos and their passion for well-chosen, timeless design.

MORE ABOUT THE ICONS COLLECTION:

“These pieces, all beautifully crafted and creatively engineered, exude a unique, timeless style that perfectly portray the Collier Webb aesthetic. From the unmistakable silhouette of our Shitake light to the striking glass fluting of our Classic Shot light, each piece in the collection demonstrates discerning form and of course, optimal function.

Whether it be one of our hand-applied patina’s, the finest alabaster or our luxurious leather, each of our carefully considered materials combine harmoniously to enhance the tactility and atmosphere of a room.

The Icons represent our passion for excellent design, each piece was created to surpass trends and to become future heirlooms.”

ABOUT COLLIER WEBB:

Collier Webb – part of the Edward Alexander Group, are designers and makers of luxury lighting, furniture and hardware for the world's most beautiful interior spaces. Combining traditional and cutting-edge techniques, their passion for design and British craft is ingrained in everything they create, be it large-scale commercial projects or any one of their vast collection pieces.

A British family business with forty years' experience, Collier Webb has gained a reputation for excellence with leading designers and architects.

Collier Webb's in-house designers work closely with their talented craftsmen to produce unique designs, each handcrafted at their South Coast Foundry for a large variety of projects spanning luxury hotels, retail spaces, restaurants and private interiors.

Lead by founder and Managing Director, Geoff Collier whose knowledge of the industry is unparalleled and with the help of his daughter, Danielle Collier they lead a team of over 50 employees.

ABOUT THE EDWARD ALEXANDER GROUP:

The Edward Alexander Group, established by Oakfield Capital Partners, is a portfolio of home design companies devoted to ensuring British craft thrives within the UK and internationally.

Each of the carefully selected brands; Collier Webb, Gainsborough, George Spencer Designs and McKinney & Co. has a unique and distinctive personality whilst sharing an intrinsically charming creative aesthetic and spirit of originality.

The Edward Alexander Group combines tradition and modernity, harvesting the best of both with quintessentially British spirit.
