VIEW THE ULTIMATE DESIGN COLLECTIVE

Come and celebrate the world's greatest concentration of design talent at Focus/19. Across six days, the show will offer a dynamic programme of 130 events – the breadth and scale of which has never been bettered – as well as global names sharing their know-how, the latest launches at every turn, new showroom openings, and expertise and insight in abundance.

Meet the designer sessions, workshops, discovery tours and artisan demonstrations dig even deeper into the stories behind the designs. On the main stage, the acclaimed Conversations in Design series excels with its international line-up of high calibre speakers sharing their creative vision. Exceptional products will be launched across the show, and design collaborations are particularly strong, proof that originality flourishes when collective minds come together. This wealth of insider knowledge is extraordinary and, what's more, it is a free resource for every visitor.

Augmenting the work of 600 international brands in the showrooms, there will be a raft of Focus/19 guest pop-ups, adding another layer to the offering. Many of them will be based in the Design Avenue, offering the first chance for visitors to see how this exciting expansion project is progressing – watch this space as we make the final touches. Specially commissioned restaurants and bars showcase the latest collections, and are social spaces that encourage the exchange of ideas.

As we continue to grow and evolve, our role at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour is to nurture the vibrant design community we have here, sowing the seeds for an even brighter future. As a Design Destination at the London Design Festival, we are proud to be at the heart of the wider momentum across the capital.

We are all incredibly inspired by what we see and learn here, and we look forward to sharing it with you.

Design Space, Third Floor, South Dome

Discover how four inspirational tastemakers bring a sense of joyfulness and wellbeing into their everyday lives. Fiona Leahy, creative director of her own event design agency, Clare Nolan, stylist, author and photographer, Clodagh McKenna, chef, cookbook author and broadcaster, and fashion editor and consultant Kim Hersov discuss how they each bring their own inimitable style to living life with authenticity, integrity, colour and fun. Expect insights into how to make conscious lifestyle decisions when it comes to fashion, entertaining, cooking, decorating, gardening and connecting with nature, and how to be mindful when living and communicating in a modern digital age. Chaired by lifestyle journalist Fiona McCarthy.Book ticket £10

12.30pm
Clare Nolan will be signing copies of her latest book, In Bloom.
Clodagh McKenna will be signing copies of her latest book, Clodagh's Suppers.

DESIGN WORKSHOP
KLC SCHOOL OF DESIGN PRESENTS

ANNA WHITEHEAD – BIOPHILIC DESIGN FOR WELLBEING IN YOUR HOME

Tai Ping

Fourth Floor, Design Centre East

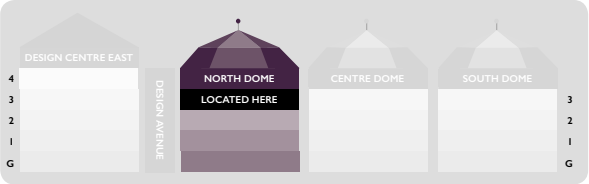

As human beings we are encoded to be at our best when immersed in a sensory, natural environment which poses a great challenge for interior designers. How can we recreate nature’s beauty, variability and sense of wellbeing within our ‘static’ interior spaces? Anna Whitehead discusses how applying biophilic principles creates interiors ‘where the soul can engage and the mind can rest.’

3pm
PERSONAL SHOPPING

FOCUS/19: SHOP THE SHOW
Third Floor, North Dome

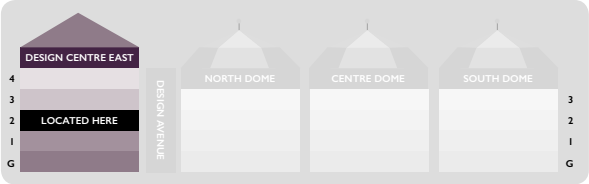

Focus/19's dynamic campaign photography brings together the very best and newest products to be seen at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour. On this specially curated tour, in-house personal shopper Gabrielle Grubanovich 'shops the show' to visit some of the designs in real life and share the stories behind them. Gabrielle is familiar with all the showrooms here so this session will offer a fast-track to the latest in design.

4pm
DESIGN WORKSHOP
Hosted by BIID

DESIGNERS OF THE WORLD UNITE
Espresso Design
Second Floor, Design Centre East

BIID registered interior designer and founder of Run For The Hills, Anna Burles, will be making a call for design enthusiasts to do their bit for planet earth by joining the exciting groundswell of eco-sensibility within the design sector. Anna is passionate about weaving thoughtful design into her studio's design projects and wants to spark debate about what we can all do to join the revolution. She will be offering practical tips that we can all do to make a difference.

PERSONAL SHOPPING SERVICE

Need a little guidance with all that is on offer at Focus/19? Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour has a friendly Personal Shopping Service that can help you 'shop the show'. Available to take appointments throughout the event.

For more details or to book an appointment, visit the Concierge Desk, Ground Floor, Centre Dome

FOCUS/19 GUEST POP-UPS

Augmenting the homegrown talent at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour, a raft of guest pop-ups will add another layer to the programme. From lighting, flooring and furniture makers to carpet and fabric designers, it will be the first time they have been able to exhibit at Focus/19.

Alice Lily Interiors

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

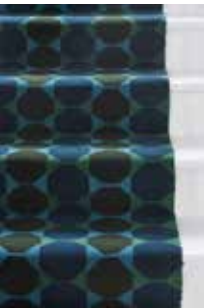

Representing a carefully curated selection of global brands, Alice Lily Interiors’ portfolio includes furniture, lighting, rugs, leather and textiles. New work showcased at Focus/19 includes lighting from French designers Garnier & Linker alongside rugs from Los Angeles based Lindstrom rugs and furniture from The Invisible Collection’s latest collaborators, Humber & Poyet.

Alternative Flooring

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Alternative Flooring proudly champions British design, craft and manufacturing and is renowned for its award-winning innovative carpets. Margo Selby, Ella Doran and Divine Savages are among the contemporary British designers it has worked with for its new Stair Art collection of patterned wool runners. Also on display are archive carpet designs by Lucienne Day.

Amy Somerville

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Exquisite, made-to-order upholstery and cabinetry, meticulously designed and made in the UK using traditional methods and the highest quality materials. The company has worked with many of the world’s finest architects, interior designers and discerning individuals since it was founded in 2006.

Andrew Martin

Ground Floor, Design Centre North

Founded in 1978, Andrew Martin is renowned for its multi layered, theatrical approach to design and highly original collections. Exploration is at the heart of the brand’s ethos and founder, Martin Waller has spent a lifetime combing the world’s wilder shores. This inspires the pop-up showroom installation: One shipwrecked designer building a sanctuary in the jungle-covered temples of the lost city of Ozymandias.

Barneby Gates

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

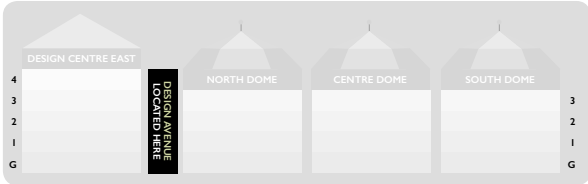

The Wiltshire-based wallpaper and fabric studio is internationally recognised for its diverse range of prints, combining traditional techniques and historical references with a fresh, contemporary twist. Two wallpapers and a fabric collection of six designs will be launched at Focus/19.

Baroncelli

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

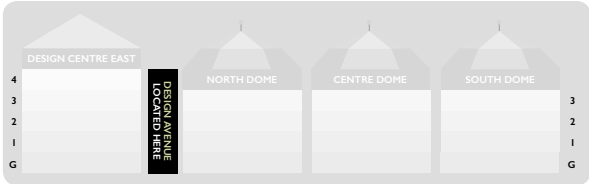

An Italian heritage and a design-led approach make Baroncelli one of the most original creators of lighting products and installations. Drawing upon 25 years of experience and innovation, its collection has a bold signature style that explores an ongoing dialogue between artisanship and technology.

Blithfield

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Blithfield's collection of fabrics and wallpapers are at home in both contemporary and traditional settings. Marking the launch of the Brookfield collection, Blithfield has teamed up with Kit Kemp, the co-owner and creative director of Firmdale Hotels, to create an inspired interior scheme using a striking new printed linens and weaves, and the vibrant embroidery of Fine Cell Work.

Christopher Farr

Ground Floor, North Dome

Christopher Farr and Christopher Farr Cloth will host a unique pop-up space in collaboration with Turquoise Mountain – the NGO founded by HRH The Prince of Wales to preserve and regenerate Afghan crafts. The workshop will be brought right into the showroom, unpicking the artisan processes behind exquisite handmade Afghan rugs and artisan textiles. The latest Cloth fabric launch and three unique Afghan embroidery commissions will also be on show.

Ecco Trading

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

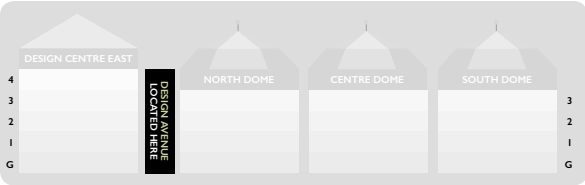

With an eclectic collection of furniture, lighting, accessories and artwork, Ecco Trading's contemporary pieces come in a range of finishes. It is known for beautiful furniture in plain and embossed leather; and for its cast bronze, from furniture and lighting down to details such as drawer-pulls.

Gaze Burvill

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

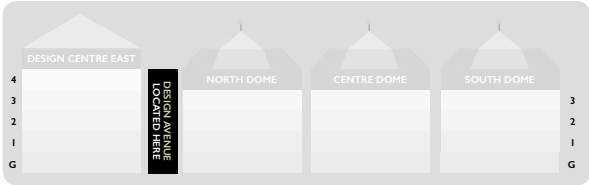

The Hampshire workshops of Gaze Burvill make beautifully crafted, sophisticated outdoor furniture, built using sustainable European oak for lasting performance. On show at Focus/19 will be the indoor-outdoor Levity dining collection, the Splash Lounge modular sofa and a compact outdoor kitchen.

Gingerlily

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Gingerlily's silk bedlinen is designed for the most comfortable sleep. Its duvet covers, sheets, pillowcases and bedspreads are all made from the finest 100% mulberry silk, which is naturally hypoallergenic, breathable, kind to skin and irresistibly comfortable. Collections include classic contemporary designs, signature plain dyes and jacquard weaves.

Gosling

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Founded by Tim Gosling in 2005, Gosling creates luxury bespoke furniture for homes, offices and superyachts, with an underlying passion for preserving British design and craftsmanship. The portfolio includes an award-winning marine range, as well as collaborations with Todhunter Earle and The Rug Company.

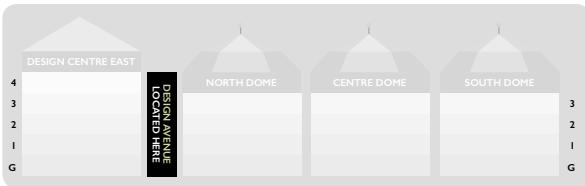

GvE & Co
Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Georgina von Etzdorf and Jonathan Docherty of GvE & Co’s mission is to bring unusual colour combinations, distinctive design elements and sensuous textures into the home. Its collection includes furnishing fabrics, throws, cushions and floor pillows in cotton and silk velvet; and rugs in wool, mohair and silk.

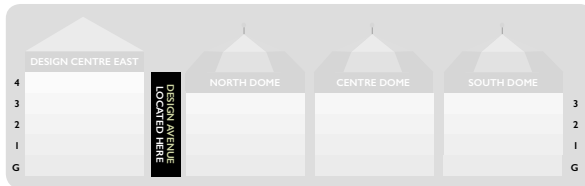

Jennifer Manners
Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Every Jennifer Manners rug tells a story in beautiful detail and is brought to life by artisans in India and Nepal who craft each piece entirely by hand. Join them for the launch of the Voyager Collection, which draws on shapes, colours and textures discovered on Jennifer’s global travels.

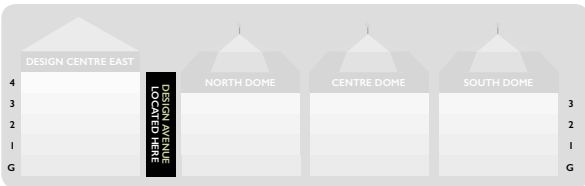

John Stefanidis
Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Capturing the designer’s ethos – “I have waged a lifelong campaign against safe good taste, using vibrant colour wherever possible” – John Stefanidis’ fabrics and wallpapers are inspired by oriental textiles, art and archival documents. New designs include ‘Hong Kong Netherton’, which references a chinoiserie design from the Brighton Pavilion’s archives.

LF Trading
Ground Floor, Design Avenue

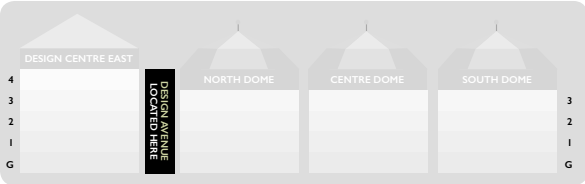

A Belgian family-run business, LF Trading works with traditional mills to create natural fabrics and timeless linens in unique colours and lightly washed finishes. It releases a small new collection every year and will be showing its bestselling Douce range in new colours, as well as an elegant range of naturals.

Ligne Roset

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

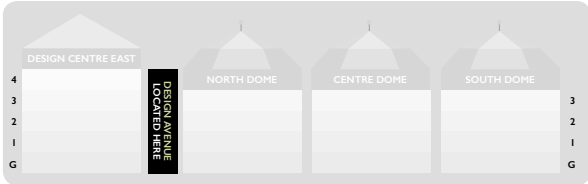

Creative and pioneering, Ligne Roset’s bold contemporary furniture and accessories are manufactured in-house in rural France. At Focus/19, the brand will present the iconic ‘Prado’ settee, which adjusts freely with weighted cushions that can easily move from the sofa to the floor, designed by Christian Werner, and ‘Amédée’, a comfortable, chic and urban armchair, by Marie-Christine Dorner.

Little Greene

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

Little Greene is an independent British paint manufacturer, committed to the socially and environmentally responsible production of high-quality paints and wallpapers. At Focus/19 it will introduce three new finishes to its family of ground-breaking water-based Intelligent Paints: ‘Intelligent Floor Paint’, ‘Intelligent Satinwood’ and ‘Intelligent ASP’.

Nico

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

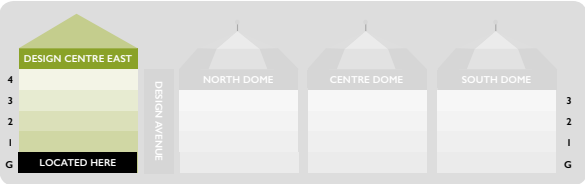

Nico Villeneuve creates bespoke contemporary furniture that combines clear designs with careful detailing. At Focus/19 Nico is exhibiting a new dining table in bleached wenge with stainless steel feet as well as a console in Indian rosewood with ebony-inlaid edges.

Oomph at Nina Campbell Pop-up

Ground Floor, Design Centre East

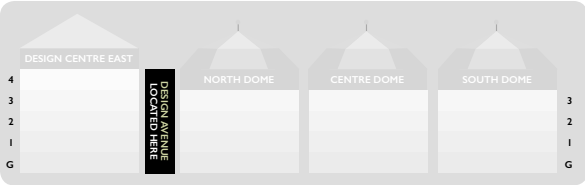

US brand oomph is bringing its distinctive design DNA – high-gloss furniture with a pop of colour – to the London launch of its outdoor collection. A beautiful trellised space designed by British interior designer Nina Campbell will show planters, oversized trays, coffee tables and console tables as well as an outdoor backgammon table, in a palette of six shades.

Paint & Paper Library

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

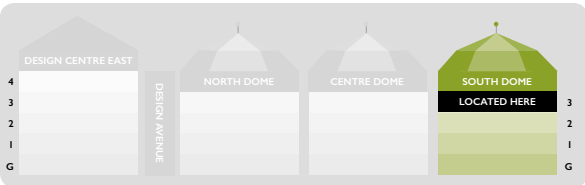

Paint & Paper Library provides inspiration, colour expertise and design ideas for interior decorators, architects and specifiers worldwide, via its palette of 180 colours. Its Monochrome collection – six nuanced pairs of black and white shades, formulated to be used together – will debut at Focus/19.

Pooky Lighting

Design Space, Third Floor, South Dome

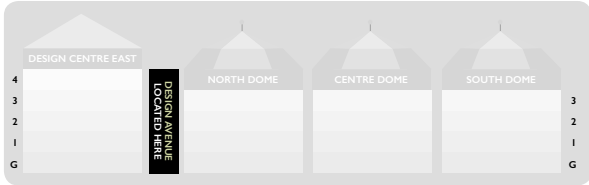

Passionate about decorative lighting, Pooky is used by leading designers the world over. Its characterful collections include pendants, chandeliers, floor and table lamps in antique brass, ceramic, glass, wood and resin, alongside shades in silk, linen and printed velvet, and mirrors.

Riviere/O&A London

Ground Floor, Design Avenue

O&A London's collaboration with rug specialist Riviere articulates their like-minded approach to design, combining craftsmanship with creativity. They are debuting Caledonia, a collection of five rugs inspired by Scotland's natural landscapes, hand-made in Nepal from the finest wool and silk.

Timney Fowler

Design Space, Third Floor, South Dome

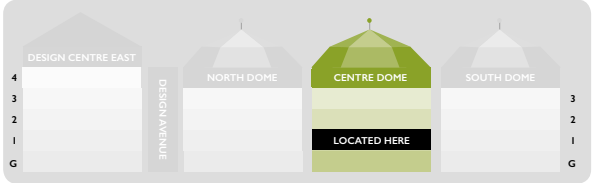

Timney Fowler launches a new collection demonstrating its timeless strength of strong graphic imagery. The power of this new Heraldic collection brings drama and wit to its idiosyncratic interiors style. Fabrics, wallpapers and accessories feature bold designs within a mix of cartouches and emblems inspired by the classical, medieval, renaissance and pop eras.

Tollgård Pop-up

First Floor, Centre Dome

A curated collection of furniture from around the world, bringing together the best of bold, contemporary luxury, created with authentic materials and processes. Discover brands such as Man of Parts, &Bespoke and Utility & Utopia, in a space presented as lounge, dining room and bedroom zones by interior designer Staffan Tollgård.

FURTHER
INFORMATION

WHERE TO EAT & DRINK

Pop-up restaurants and cafés, specially commissioned for Focus/19, offer stylish places to eat and drink, along with plenty of design inspiration. This year there are options in the domes and the Design Avenue so make time to catch up with friends, colleagues and clients at one of these convivial spaces.

FT HOW TO SPEND IT RESTAURANT

Design Avenue, Ground Floor

For destination dining, head to this stylish brasserie-style restaurant, where the enticing menu is complemented by a well-curated wine-list. The setting mixes urban glamour with artistic influences: dark, distressed metallics, deeply textured fabrics and a sculptural installation hanging above the circular bar and surrounding banquette seating.

BAR BOTANICAL

Ground Floor, North Dome

The vibrant, nature-inspired decor of this lively bar makes it the perfect place for champagne or a Bellini, accompanied by tempting bar snacks. Pull up a stool at the central brass-clad bar or perch at one of the high tables, surrounded by greenery thanks to a design scheme of leafy textiles and wallcoverings.

DOME CAFE

Ground Floor, South Dome

For something fresh and fast, drop in and pick up a sandwich, salad, coffee or juice at this well-located pitstop.

SECOND FLOOR CAFE

Second Floor, Design Centre East

Drop in and pick up a fresh sandwich, salad, coffee or juice – or stay and enjoy the genial setting, with its forested wallcovering, dark teal tiles and metallic details.

GROUND COFFEE SOCIETY BAR

Third Floor, North Dome

Enjoy a free coffee from Ground Coffee Society. Sourcing, roasting and serving its own perfectly balanced beans, these speciality coffee connoisseurs have built a solid reputation for some of the most consistent and loved coffee since 2009. Collect a token on registration.

SKY GARDEN

All Floors, Centre Dome

Specially commissioned for Focus/19, a breathtaking aerial installation of trailing fronds hangs amid lanterns wrapped in fresh, new-season fabrics. The light-filled Centre Dome that provides the backdrop further emphasises a positive connection with nature. As Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour continues to grow, it nurtures its design community, sowing the seeds for an even brighter future.
