

BEAUMONT & FLETCHER
INTERIOR ATELIER

BRAND AMBASSADOR/SALES REPRESENTATIVE

We have a rare opportunity to join Beaumont & Fletcher, world renowned for creating the finest traditionally hand crafted furniture, lights and mirrors, and coveted couture embroidery.

This sales focused role requires an exceptional individual to drive revenue from existing clients, and build prosperous relationships with the very best interior designers around the world, bringing about opportunities to showcase our unique designs.

Highly articulate and engaging, the successful candidate will ideally have knowledge of the interior design industry, however a passion to quickly learn and succeed is just as important.

While a sales role, we ultimately require someone to become our Brand Ambassador – to passionately share our beautiful British brand in a meticulous, expert manner.

The successful candidate will be adept at:

- Driving sales from existing clients
- Identifying and converting new clients and revenue streams
- Setting and achieving monthly targets
- Thinking creatively
- Overcoming hurdles
- Delivering presentations
- Working unsupervised

We are happy to consider both part-time and full-time applicants, and a flexible working schedule, some of which will be in our Chelsea showroom.

SALARY: Negotiable basic salary plus performance related bonuses

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS: Must have a driver's license and ideally a car. Please note, while the role involves global sales, we will not expect regular travel outside of the UK.

Please send your CV and a covering note, explaining why we should consider you to:
