Zinc textile

Interior Textile Designer
A full-time position based in our London studio in SW10
Salary: dependent on experience

Are you a talented, creative, and experienced Textile Designer with a passion for contemporary design and looking for an opportunity to work for a market leading interior textile brand?

We have an excellent opportunity for a designer who has proven expertise within the sector to join our dynamic and busy design studio working alongside a team of designers on a variety of tasks. This is an exciting time to join, as we focus on the future direction of our unique brand.

Part of The Romo Group, Zinc Textile launched in 2010, creating inspirational fabrics, wallcoverings and accessories. Each collection brings a fresh perspective that is not tied to trend but rather focuses on intriguing and spontaneous designs hallmarked by texture and an array of confident patterns. We design home textile and wallcovering collections, that launch annually to our global customer base.

Key Responsibilities are:

- Working in collaboration with the design team to assist in creative processes and design work
- Helping with the day to day running of a busy design studio undertaking a variety of tasks
- Liaising with suppliers to make enquiries and give product development feedback for the design studio
- Helping to organise the performance and compliance testing of all new product with our in-house technical department
- Attending supplier meetings with a focus on fabric and wallcovering development
- Developing trend and colour research
- Assisting with photo shoots

We are looking for people with:

- A high achieving degree in Textile Design or similar qualification with a good understanding of different print and weave techniques
- A creative mind!
- 4 + years' design experience in a similar design role for a high-end textile & home furnishings brand
- Excellent drawing and painting skills with fluency in Photoshop and AVA to create original artwork and colours
- A keen eye for colour sensitivity and an understanding of colour balance and proportions
- A solid understanding of the fabric testing requirements and processes needed for interior textiles
- A practical ability and a creative approach towards addressing everyday issues and finding solutions
- Excellent team communication skills to collaborate with all other relevant departments and suppliers
- Flexibility with task and time management
- A can-do attitude
- Some knowledge and experience of content creation and social media marketing would be advantageous

If you believe you have the relevant skills and would like to be considered for this role, please submit the following: An up-to-date CV and covering letter demonstrating your experience and interest in this role, along with your portfolio of work.
